

Who Do You Think You Are? - Yr 3 / 4 Homework

Have a go at the activities below, every time you complete one, colour in the box and send us a photo through 'Class Dojo', bring in a photo of what you have done, or tell us all about it. We really look forward to seeing what you achieve. Home learning will be celebrated and Dojos will be given.

Go to the local Library and find books on indigenous people.

Can you create a family tree? Did you find any surprises?

Write a biography about somebody in your family.

Find out what your Christian name means. Where does your surname originate from?

Write a story which has a nocturnal marsupial as the main character.

Do you think there may be life on other planets? What do they look like? Draw or create a model of your alien.

With 'Global Warming' we may one day need a new planet. Can you design and create a dream planet. Think carefully about the needs of all life.

Was life fair for both men and women in indigenous cultures? Find out about their roles.

What is your Native American name? use this generator and share the results with us. <https://www.playbuzz.com/katelynw11/what-is-your-native-american-name>

Totem poles were important to Native Americans. They often featured symbols important to the family that owned it. Can you create a Totem Pole for your family

Listen to a song from the decade that one of your parents was born. What do you think?

Find out what a Haiku poem is and write your own.

Find a recipe that has been passed down through your family. Create the dish and send us a photo.

Find about the homes of an indigenous tribe. Create a model to share with the class.

Write a letter to an older member of your family asking them about their childhood.

Read a newspaper. Share an interesting story about the Isle of Wight.

Write an acrostic poem with the word 'family'.

Ask your parents or grandparents to share their favourite book from their childhood.

Find out the exchange rates of currency from countries around the world. How much from each country would we get if we exchanged £10

Do a household chore without being asked.

Create a native American headdress.

Find out about native American symbols. Record some to share in school.

Watch the New Zealand Haka. Why is this dance significant and what does it mean?

Create a meal from a different culture. Can you describe the flavours to share with your class.

Re-create a piece of Aboriginal artwork.