Lanesend Primary School Nutritional Standards Policy

The governing body of every primary school that opts to provide school meals, must ensure that any lunches provided meet with the standards prescribed in the Food Information Regulations 2014 and Food Safety & Hygiene (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2014. Guidance is available from the DfE.

PURPOSE

The aims of the school include children being guided to lead active and healthy lives. We believe children are best able to take full advantage of the educational opportunities the school provides. The Board of Trustees will ensure that food provided in the school and advice given to children both promote a healthy lifestyle.

The governing body will:

- Ensure that lunches meet with the standards prescribed in the Nutritional Standards for School Lunches (England) Regulations 2000, revised 2014.
- Establish standards for free school meals and monitor their content, cost and provision.

Arrangements for monitoring and evaluation:

The Board of Trustees will receive yearly reports from Chartwells on the extent to which external providers conform to the Regulations, in terms of content, cost and provision, and the number of children receiving free school meals. Surveys of children will be undertaken at regular intervals and reported to the Board of Trustees, to establish whether children are satisfied with the quality of meals offered.

Relationship to other policies:

Improving and sustaining good nutritional standards are included where appropriate in all curriculum policies, health and safety, and the home-school agreement.

Role and responsibilities of Headteacher, other staff, governors:

The Headteacher will ensure that:

- Guidance is made available for staff
- External providers of lunches conform to the Regulations
- The agreed standards for Free School Meals and Infant Universal Free School Meals are implemented
- Content, cost and provision are monitored
- Special dietary needs of children and staff are catered for (e.g. vegetarian, Halal, Kosher etc.)

All staff are expected to promote healthy eating in accordance with school guidance
