

Pupil Premium Grant 2014/2015

The Pupil Premium Grant was introduced in April 2011 for children eligible for Free School Meals, Looked After Children and children whose parents are currently serving in the armed forces.

We are required to report how many children are entitled to the PPG and how we spend the money.

Percentage of children entitled to PPG (as at January 2014 which is when the calculation for allocation is)

Total number of children on roll :	268
% of children entitled to PPG:	43.3%

Support provided with PPG during 2014/2015

Small classes.

Intervention groups for maths, handwriting, social skills, spelling and other needs as identified
Dyslexia teacher.

Financial support for after school club sessions.

Behaviour support

Music therapy

Play therapy

CAF and TAF meetings and actions following these

Reports for parents 6 times a year with thorough review of data

Daily 'letters and sounds' work for children

Provision map to track progress of children and impact of interventions

Mentoring programme

Family Liaison Officer to support families

Support for purchasing of uniform

Support for attendance of school trips

ELSA (Emotional Literacy Support) has been provided

Challenge and Adventure 6 week intervention support for 15 children

Number of children and pupil premium received 2014/2015

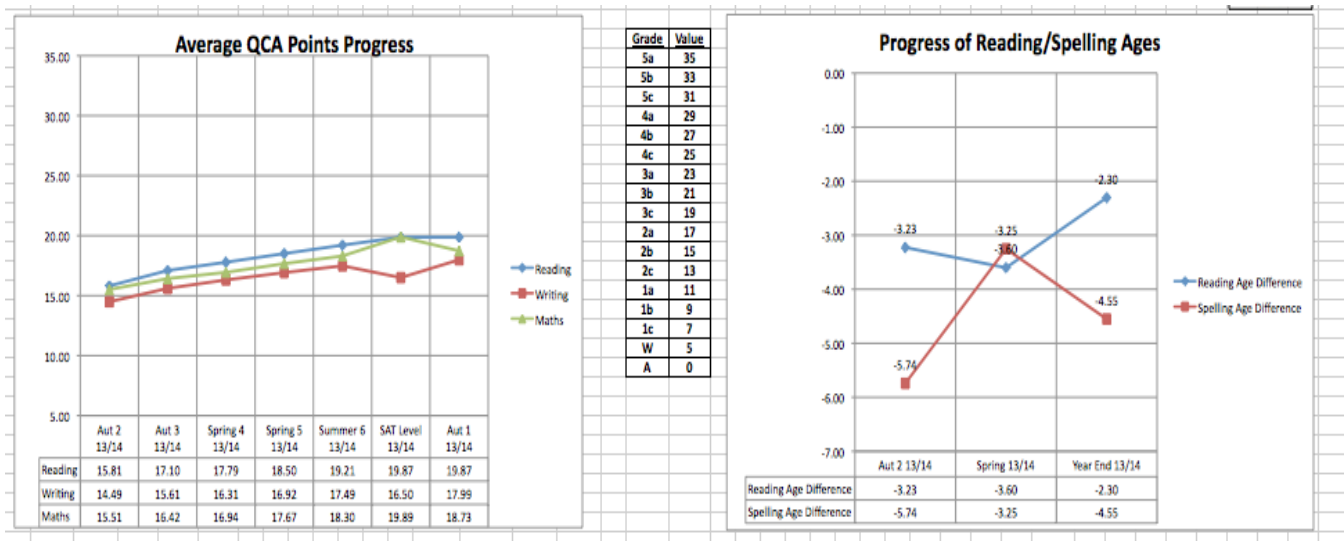

Total number of children on roll	268
Total Number of children eligible for PPG	116
Service children total	2
Total amount of PPG received	£160,017.33

Impact

We have monitored the impact of the support provided via our Provision Map which tracks all children within the school, the interventions and support they have had and their outcomes.

For Pupil Premium eligible children please see graphs below.

April 2014 to August 2014

September 2014 – March 2015

